

think finance think foundation sustainable growth hinges on a sound framework of process orientation & governance. Our finance practice, with the deep expertise and cross industry experience of its team, offers comprehensive services encompassing finance strategy, process design and operations to put companies on the road to improved performance and ROI.

Venkat combines solid finance qualifications, cross domain knowledge and functional experience in finance & taxation in organisations like TVS, Airtel, Ford & RPG, to lead a deep & enabling finance practice. He is ably supported by a team of seasoned professionals.

consulting

- » risk & assurance advisory
- » financial advisory services for business
- » transaction advisory services

IT platform

thinkmoney

a robust, control laden financial software and systems for greater visibility & control over all forms of organizational purchases, payouts and asset management

outsourced services

- » procurement & vendor management
- » fixed assets & insurance risk management
- » accounts payable and accounts receivable
- » general ledger & financial reporting
- » management accounting & decision support

